the new Leader

THIRTIETH YEAR OF PUBLICATION

SECTION TWO

MAY 4, 1953

INDEX

1950-1952

This index covers every issue of THE NEW LEADER from May 6, 1950, when the format was changed from tabloid to magazine, through December 29, 1952. Hereafter, an index will appear at the end of each year of publication. This index is divided according to years.

Listings for each year are given in three sections:

Section 1, Index of Authors, lists the names of all NEW LEADER contributors, whether writers of articles, book reviewers, columnists or authors of letters to the Editor. The name of the contributor is followed by the date or dates on which his contribution(s) appeared. The date is given by month and day (example: 5/6 is May 6).

Section 2, Index of Subjects, arranges all articles, columns, significant editorials and letters to the Editor according to subject. Under each subject are listed the titles, authors and dates of the relevant articles. It is extensively cross-referenced to permit easy location of articles on broad subjects or otherwise difficult to classify precisely.

Section 3, Index of Books Reviewed, lists all books reviewed in the NEW LEADER literary section. These are arranged alphabetically according to the name of the books' authors. The author of the book is listed first, then the book's title, then the name of the reviewer and the date of the review.

Example: Shakespeare, William: Romeo and Juliet. (Charles Lamb) 5/6

REPRINTS AND PAMPHLETS

Questions for Communists

By Stephen Naft. 25 cents. Now in its fourth edition, this 28-page pamphlet is our all-time best-seller. First published in 1948, it has been revised and expanded to meet current developments. In concise question form, it exposes Soviet propaganda myths in 20 separate areas, points up Communist contradictions and lies about such subjects as "peace," "witch-hunting," "classless society," "Soviet justice," etc. Thousands of men and women with fellow-traveling friends have found it the "sure cure."

Freedom in American Culture

By Sidney Hook. 15 cents. First published on April 6, 1953, this brilliant analysis is a classic in its field. It is a 16-page discussion of such great controversial issues as heresy, conspiracy, security risks, campus "fear," blacklisting, civil liberties, McCarthyism, Communist party teachers, loyalty oaths, and foreign criticisms of America. Dr. Hook presents an intelligent, militant liberal position for our time, ideally suited for discussion in colleges and current-events groups.

Lattimore and the IPR

By Richard L. Walker. 15 cents. Thousands have regarded this 16-page pamphlet, first published on March 31, 1952, as an authoritative discussion of the Communist attempt to influence United States Far Eastern policy through the Institute of Pacific Relations. Professor Walker analyzes thoroughly the publications of the IPR, the writings of its most celebrated figure, Owen Lattimore, and the voluminous Senate testimony on the IPR and Lattimore.

America and the Russian Future

By Raymond Aron, Wilhelm Roepke, Fedor Stepun and Boris Shub. 15 cents. A Frenchman, a German, a Russian and an American evaluate the U.S. policy toward Russia first elucidated by George F. Kennan. This symposium, published on January 14, 1952, preceeded by many months the debate over containment and liberation which highlighted the Presidential campaign in the fall of that year.

The Brothers Communazi

By Louis Jay Herman. 5 cents. This concise collection of parallel quotations proving that Communists and Nazis are brothers under the skin has been in great demand since its publication on January 1, 1951. Students, trade-union members and discussion leaders have found it invaluable in illustrating the twin totalitarian threat to our democratic institutions.
